DEDICATION

Like my first few calendars in the early 1980s, which were made for Sally alone, this calendar is dedicated to my dear Aunt Sally. I have countless memories of doing fun things with Sally, from bowling to road trips to fishing. In this I am not alone, as Sally touched the lives of many people, through her work in dental hygiene, as a teacher, a good listener, a mentor, a colleague, and a caring friend. Notable among her virtues was her consistency of character. Every child should be so lucky as to have a person like Sally in his or her corner, whose love is unwavering, and whose identity is clear. Despite the stress of her career, and health problems she faced, she had a knack for sharing experiences with people, genuinely and without distraction. A toast to Sally! I will be forever thankful for her companionship and generosity.
